

Eden Maps Three-Step Peace - at - Any-Price Program on Continent

Success of Plan Contingent Upon Ability of Soviet, Italy and Germany To Get Together—
Tension Great.

ITALIANS ANGRY

Eden Doesn't Like Substitution of French, British Cruisers for His Own and Germany's.

(By The Associated Press)
London, June 26.—Foreign Secretary Anthony Eden mapped his "peace at almost any price" today, with Britain's hopes for a quick end to the Spanish crisis hinged upon the ability of Germany, Italy and Russia to get together.

The dashing and youthful Eden had in mind three immediate steps to ease the tension of Europe, and a sub-committee of the 27-nation non-intervention committee was called for Tuesday to consider them.

The steps were:
To fill the gap along the eastern Spanish coast with British and French warships replacing those withdrawn by Germany and Italy.

To place neutral observers aboard patrol vessels of the non-intervention cordon, which seeks to keep men and arms from Spanish combatants.

To resume four-power (Italy, Germany, France, Britain) collaboration to the patrol.

Germany and Italy would have to agree to the first step, and there were indications from both nations that they might look with disfavor on any effort to replace their warships.

Continuation of four-power collaboration, veteran observers said, rested largely upon Russian capitulation. (Russia's delegate to the non-intervention committee last week criticized the four-power plan to patrol Spain, because other European nations were not consulted.)

Some observers thought that Britain alone might seek to patrol the entire eastern coast of Spain, with France guarding the remaining Spanish waters—alone or with some aid from Britain.

In addition to the Franco-British patrol plan, it was indicated that Britain will present her own plan for withdrawal of foreigners now fighting or engaged indirectly in the civil war in Spain.

Italy Indignant

Rome, June 26 (AP)—Italian indignation deepened today against the Franco-British proposal for substituting their warships for those of Germany and Italy withdrawn from the Spanish non-intervention system.

An authoritative spokesman asserted the plan, under consideration in London and Paris, would meet firm Italian opposition in the non-intervention committee.

Such a replacement, the spokesman said, would constitute a unilateral measure unjustified under the 27-nation non-intervention agreement and would represent "the exercise of a particular Franco-British policy toward Spain."

To Spanish Waters

Gibraltar, June 26 (AP)—Seven German warships steamed westward past here today, retracing their course of last Thursday night into Spanish waters.

The line included the 10,000-ton pocket battleship Admiral Scheer, the cruiser Nürnberg and the destroyers Tiger, Falko, Albatross, Kondo and Greif.

They were believed bound for Cadiz, Spanish insurgent-held port in the southwest coast.

Nazi Press Cool

Berlin, June 26 (AP)—The Nazi-controlled press received coldly today British Prime Minister Neville Chamberlain's speech on the Spanish crisis.

The newspaper attitude contrasted with the first reaction yesterday of German officials, who praised what they called Chamberlain's "conciliatory spirit."

The newspapers' reaction to Chamberlain's appeal for caution in the face of the "serious but not hopeless" situation was key-noted by the Essener National Zeitung, personal organ of Col. Gen. Hermann Wilhelm Goering.

The newspaper said there was a general feeling of indignation throughout Germany over the "failure" of the two western democracies, Great Britain and France, to uphold European solidarity.

"That feeling, the paper said, 'cannot be shaken or reversed by the speech of the British prime minister before the House of Commons acknowledging the German attitude throughout the Leipzig conflict has shown a remarkable measure of self-restraint.'"

Naval Widow Dies Today, Suicide on Husband's Grave

Rye, N. Y., June 26 (AP)—A handsome woman who left a note saying she was the widow of George Gardiner Fry, retired naval officer, lawyer and yachtsman, of Westport, Conn., shot and killed herself today on his grave in Greenwood Union cemetery.

In the hand bag of the well-dressed woman, who appeared to be about 34 years old, police found a clipping from a New York newspaper, the obituary early this year of Commander Fry.

The note asked that Mrs. Jane Huvane, (127 Carpenter avenue), Crestwood, be notified and gave her telephone number. Police communicated with Mrs. Huvane and she came to identify the suicide.

The body lay face down across Fry's grave, which is surrounded by a modest tombstone. Acting Medical Examiner Edwin H. Huntington gave permission for the body to be removed after Patrolman William Jennings of the village force reported it was a clear case of suicide. The woman had sent a bullet from an old .32 calibre revolver through her right temple.

Mrs. Huvane said Commander Fry, who had three children by his first marriage, married a second time in 1921. He was the author of a law textbook, "Fry's Questions and Answers on Municipal Law." During the World War he commanded a warship in the Atlantic fleet of the U. S. Navy. At the turn of the century he was corporation counsel of Alamaroneck, where he formerly resided.

The body was found about 7:45 by Andrew Carlin, an attendant at the cemetery, who had to walk some distance to a telephone so that police were not notified until 8:15. A physician who was summoned to the scene said the woman had been dead several hours and placed the time of death generally near midnight.

The Ulster Park W. C. T. U. will meet at the home of Mrs. B. T. Van Aken, Port Ewen, Wednesday, June 30.

Plan to Split Naval Guard off Spain Advanced for Italo-Nazi Officers

Paris, June 26 (AP)—Sources close to the government of Premier Camille Chautemps said today a plan for partial Italo-German participation in the Spanish neutrality patrol was being drafted.

The program would put Italian observers on French warships and German representatives aboard British vessels, it was understood, to reconstitute the non-intervention patrol in an effort to pacify the troubled Mediterranean situation resulting from the withdrawal of Italy and Germany from the old four-power patrol.

By thus splitting the naval guard, French negotiators working in close cooperation with Great Britain aimed to bring Italy and Germany back, at least in the role of watchers, into the scheme to isolate the Spanish war.

The French and British vessels would take up guard of the eastern Spanish coast, a section previously under the eyes of German and Italian navy men.

Another plan which received some consideration was for allocation of the Italian and German patrol positions to some smaller European powers, such as Sweden or the Netherlands.

The international committee already has drawn on its smaller members to provide officers at the head of the frontier patrols which supplement the coastal naval guards seeking peacefully to keep all foreign arms and men out of the civil war area.

Quiet Ceremony to Join America's Boy Friend, Sweetheart

Hollywood, June 26 (AP)—In a ceremony as private as their romance was quiet, Mary Pickford will become the bride of Buddy Rogers late today.

The one-time "America's Sweetheart" and "America's Boy Friend" will say "I do" at 3 o'clock this afternoon (6 p. m., Eastern Standard Time) in a setting strangely contrasting with the fanfare of their professional careers.

Where a thousand invited guests were admitted and 10,000 fans milled about an exclusive church for the Jeanette MacDonald-Gene Raymond wedding, most recent of Hollywood's big-name nuptials, the Pickford-Rogers guest list numbered only 14—with a big guard of police assigned to see that there are no unwanted additions.

The Rev. James Hamilton Lash, pastor of the Hollywood Congregational Church, will read the ceremony in the garden at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Louis D. Lighton, friends of the bride and groom. The couple will embark for a Honolulu honeymoon on the same liner bearing the newly wedded Raymonds.

Will Wear Blue

Mary will wear blue, "sky blue," with a small empire type hat colored "lie de vin" (dregs of wine). Her gloves will be of the same shade. Buddy will be formally attired.

The maid of honor will be Mrs. Lighon, known professionally as Hope Loring. It was she who wrote the scenario for "My Best Girl," 10 years ago, in which Buddy, then a film newcomer, was Mary's leading man. Lighon, an executive at M-G-M studios, helped make Buddy's starring pictures in the early talkie days at Paramount.

Best man will be Buddy's younger brother, Bill Rogers. Witnesses to the wedding will be Miss Gyrene Pickford, Mary's niece and adopted daughter; Frances Marion, highest paid woman scenarist and Mary's longtime friend; Mrs. Selma Chalf, Mary's cousin, and her husband, who will give Mary in marriage, and their son, Don; John Lock, husband of the late Lettie Pickford; Mrs. F. E. Benson, a cousin of Mary's; Buddy's parents, Mr. and Mrs. B. H. Rogers of Olathe, Kas.; Mrs. John Binford, Buddy's sister, and her daughter, Shirley Jane, and Buddy's aunt, Mrs. William Hoisington, all of Chicago.

No Motion Pictures

After the wedding, photographers will be admitted to the garden in groups of four. The garden is too small to accommodate more than a quartet of photographers at one time.

There will be no newsreel pictures. Despite her long experience before the moving picture cameras, Mary decided against this after she saw the newsreel pictures of the Duke and Duchess of Windsor at their wedding.

Later 300 motion picture friends and newspaper people will gather at Pickfair for a reception. To gain admittance to the hilltop institution named after Mary and her second husband, Douglas Fairbanks, it will be necessary for guests to exhibit a telegraphic invitation signed by Mary.

The wedding will be the third for Miss Pickford. Her first husband was Owen Moore, whom she married in 1911, and divorced eight years later. Mary was 16 when she married Moore, who then was 25.

Miss Pickford married Douglas Fairbanks, 10 years her senior, in 1920. She divorced him in 1935.

The marriage will be the first for Buddy, eleven years younger than Miss Pickford, who is 43.

Mid-West Police Scour Area for Robert Irwin After Cleveland Tip

Sculptor, Sought for Gedeon
Murders, Reported by Girl
Employee of Hotel, Who Posed for Him.

OTHERS CERTAIN

Girl Asked Him if He Was Irwin
Belief.

Cleveland, June 26 (AP)—An artist who police said "definitely" was Robert Irwin fled his shabby, dim-lighted room and left only a slender trail today for authorities seeking him for New York city's famous Gedeon murders.

A kitchen girl, a clerk and a half-dozen other employees at a leading downtown hotel identified a bar boy there as the sculptor-divinity student charged with slaying last March 28 pretty Veronica Gedeon, her mother and a man who roomed at their East Side flat.

"The man definitely is Irwin," declared Detective Lieut. Stephen Tozzer as a widespread hunt was started for the fugitive a few hours after he vanished from this Lake Erie city.

The kitchen girl, attractive, chubby, dark-haired Henrietta Koscianski, 19, started police on an intense search of the former insane asylum inmate, accused of murder in triplicate.

She recognized, as she thumbed through a detective story magazine Wednesday night, a resemblance between the 29-year-old man named as the killer of art's good-time girl, and the bar boy who had worked at the hotel for a month and a half.

Miss Koscianski, who said "I didn't tell police because it occurred to me only as a coincidence," I asked him playfully last night:

Asked Real Name

"Say, Bob, what is your real name, anyhow?"

"Robert Murray, why?" she said was the reply.

"Then I said did you ever hear of Robert Irwin and he turned his back to me and said 'no'—sounding kind of indifferent. I didn't see the expression on his face. He turned and walked out of the hotel kitchen and that was the last I ever saw of him."

She took the picture to other hotel employees and all remarked of the close resemblance. Three hours later, she said, "nobody knew where he was."

"I hadn't thought of him as a murderer. It was only after he was gone that I realized he must have been Irwin."

Police were called and the search started early today for the man sought throughout the nation since early in April—the man named by Assistant Chief Inspector John A. Lyons of New York police as the Easter Sunday slayer of Miss Gedeon, her mother, Mary, 34, and a male roomer in their Beekman Hill apartment.

Detective squads, plucked at the time elapsed between his disappearance and when it was reported, several hours later, hurried to his room in a cheap hotel.

There they found no trace of the man, whom they were told had registered April 8 under the name of Jack Murdock, and had informed the hotel on June 11 that the name Murdock was a mistake, and that his name really was James Murray.

New York Papers Found

In the apartment, Tozzer said, were found a dozen New York papers. Several of them referred to the Gedeon murders, and parts of each story had been clipped out.

Also left behind was a shabby pair of low-heeled black shoes which had been half-soled. Inside was the name of a firm ending with the faintly decipherable letters "Lid." This, Tozzer said, corresponded with a police circular showing Irwin owned a pair of Canadian-made shoes.

He was "positively identified" by Miss Koscianski, a clerk, Manuel Meridas, and at least a half-dozen other hotel employees.

"There is no doubt about it," Tozzer declared.

The search first led to a Chicago-bound bus, but police said this was a "precautionary" measure and that they were not at all certain the bar boy boarded the bus. Hurried radio alarms were flashed to other midwest police departments.

When last seen the suspect was wearing a light gray suit and a tan leather jacket.

Treasury Receipts

Washington, June 26 (AP)—The position of the Treasury June 24: Receipts, $30,217,202.22; expenditures, $26,777,861.72; balance, $2,568,984,922.88; customs receipts for the month, $24,022,962.91; receipts for the fiscal year (since July 1), $5,213,031,412.80; expenditures, $7,986,350,221.80, including $2,733,582,398.00 of emergency expenditures; excess of expenditures, $26,731,809.00; gross debt, $36,392,849,647.45, an increase of $5,484,865.32 above the previous day; gold assets, $12,271,519,672.59, including $1,040,163,200.14 of inactive gold.

Jamboree Train of Scouts Halts Here to Take on Baggage

The scout special train, in charge of Conductor J. A. Mulligan and Engineer J. Egan, paused for several minutes at the West Shore station this morning to allow parents and friends of the Washington bound scouts to bid farewell and to supply packages of food to the various scouts.

The special consisted of 10 cars, two baggage, two diners, and six coaches, and when it arrived at the local station, about noon, the diners were jammed with hungry boys. The first section of the special, also consisting of 10 cars, steamed through Kingston about 10:50 a. m., but it was the second section that carried the happy scouts from this vicinity on their way to the big jamboree in the nation's capital.

The local scouts had boarded the train at Catskill after a period of camp training at Camp Half Moon in preparation for the pilgrimage to the capital.

Two scouts from Troop 6, Albany Avenue Baptist Church, were waiting for the special at the station and there loaded on two totem poles, one belonging to the Beaver patrol, and the other the property of the Bat patrol. This latter pole had a bat carved on its top, and both were decorated with various carvings denoting phases of scouting. These totem poles

No Vacations for New York City Board As His Honor LaGuardia Calls Bluff

New York, June 26 (AP)—New York city's Board of Estimate faced a vacationless summer today, and its members voted to be careful about their remarks at future meetings, especially those attended by Mayor Fiorello H. LaGuardia.

Here's what happened at yesterday's meeting, which was to have been the last until September 24. Alderman President William F. Brunner said "I don't want a vacation." Bronx Borough President James J. Lyons said "You're right, we don't need long vacations like the courts."

The mayor quickly interrupted:

"Then we'll have no adjournment at all this summer. We'll meet every Friday as usual."

Lyons spoke again: "We won't meet in the summer city hall at College Point, either," he said, referring to the mayor's summer office in suburban Queens.

The mayor came back: "I serve notice right now that I will call this board together every Friday throughout the summer right here in this chamber. I'll call a bluff every time I see one."

Inquiry disclosed the new arrangement would affect summer plans of every member of the board. For many years it had been customary to suspend meeting during July and August.

Mills Closed for Month by Steel Workers' Organizing Committee, Ham with Activity Protected by National Guard.

"STRIKE OVER"

Republic District Manager Declares, "Strike is Over as Far as We Are Concerned."

(By The Associated Press)

Youngstown, O., June 26.—Claims that their plants were "flooded with workers" were made by officials of Youngstown Sheet and Tube Co., and the Republic Steel Corporation today.

Mills of the concerns, closed for a month in a strike called by the Steel Workers Organizing Committee, hummed with activity. Ohio National Guardsmen and city police guarded the movements of workers in and out of the plants, opened last night.

The strike was called against Republic, Youngstown Sheet and Tube, Inland Steel, and the Bethlehem Steel Corporation, over refusal of the companies to accede to demands of the SWOC for signed labor contracts.

In Johnstown, Pa., the Cambria Works of Bethlehem began to resume operations. There was no interference from lightly manned picket lines.

"The strike is over as far as we are concerned," said Roy Leventry, district manager of Republic Steel.

Conflicting Announcements

The SWOC, in a full page advertisement published here today, declared "the first 48 hours (of the back to work movement) show that the strikers are holding to a man."

After a change in shifts at the plant at 7 a. m., Leventry said between 4,000 and 4,500 men out of normal force of 6,000 had entered the gates.

Youngstown Sheet and Tube officials estimated 60 per cent of a normal 14,000 employees had returned.

There were no disturbances as the shifts changed.

Republic reported that one blast furnace had made a cast at midnight, the first production in the plant since May 26.

Back to Work

Youngstown, O., June 26 (AP)—Non-strikers went back to work today in the rich Mahoning Valley of steel.

Militia prevailed, protecting under Gov. Martin L. Davey's orders both "the right to work and the right to strike."

Leaders of the Suburban Campbell C. I. O. Lodge of Youngstown Sheet & Tube Co., in telegrams to President Roosevelt asking intervention to prevent a "massacre," called the soldiers "strike-breakers."

C. I. O. chiefs, finding themselves suddenly on the defensive, called upon the strikers to re-emphasize their lines.

"The strike goes on unbroken," its leaders said. Steel went its answer with belching smoke from long-smokeless stacks.

Definitely there was a new crisis at hand in the month long turmoil that has rendered 100,000 idle and stretched into seven states "troops, costing the state of Ohio more than $20,000 a day, cannot remain in the valley forever. What may happen when they are withdrawn remains a matter of deep concern.

The governor has not indicated how long the troops are to stay. They are not expected to withdraw at least until the middle of next week. By that time the "back-to-work" movement at the mills in Youngstown, Warren, Canton, Niles and Cleveland will probably have demonstrated what strength it may possess.

The chairman of the Federal Mediation Board, Charles P. Taft II, announced late last night that the board, of which Edward F. McGrady of the Labor Department and Lloyd K. Garrison of the University of Wisconsin are the other members, would issue today what may be a "final" statement.

General Situation

Steel strike is one month old today.

Militia enforces "right to work—right to strike" in Ohio.

Number of idle: Estimated at 90,000, a drop from the high of the strike, 100,000.

Casualties: 12 dead, more than 220 injured; some property damage from dynamite and bomb explosions.

Youngstown, O.—Steel mills, closed a month by strike, reopen under troop protection without disorder; unions send telegram of protest to President Roosevelt against using state troops for strike-breakers.

Canton, O.—Militia joins local officers in enforcing injunction

A Blonde Carries The Torch—For Labor

SPEAKING UP
Comparatively new, women organizers like blonde Velma Hixon have become potent figures on the labor front. Velma can make a hard-hitting speech—a helpful asset but not a "must."

SIGNING SESSION
Velma is the 27-year-old wife of a union taxi driver who approves of her work. She gets $22.50 a week. Stationed in Atlanta, her job is swinging to the CIO fold women garment workers in a block of southern states. Here she is explaining the application blank to a couple of "converts."

FREE-FOR-ALL
No holds were barred when Velma's unionists tangled with recalcitrant workers at an Atlanta manufacturing plant. "Yeah, man," says fiery little Velma. "If we can't organize 'em peacefully, then a scrap's on." She adds that she doesn't encourage a fight—sometimes they just "pop out of the blue."

HOT DOGS
It takes an "all-around" woman, says Velma, to be an organizer. Just one of many headaches are blistered feet after a day on the "beat." But—"it's a lot of fun if you like it," Velma insists she does.

Krakow Protests Pilsudski Removal

Warsaw, June 26 (AP).—Demonstrators in Krakow smashed windows in the palace of the Archbishop of Krakow early today because of the removal of Marshal Joseph Pilsudski's body from its cathedral vault by the archbishop's order.

In Warsaw, the office of a Catholic church paper, Maly Dziennik, was raided and wrecked.

No arrests were announced in either city.

In Warsaw the government banned the sale of a number of newspapers which reported the disorders or sided with the archbishop. Police broke up an attempted demonstration before the home of the Papal Nuncio here last night.

The Catholic explanation for the transfer of the body of Poland's former "strong man" to a nearby bell tower was that the crypt was too damp and too small for the crowds that visited it. Newspapers friendly to the government called the archbishop's action an offense against the nation. Thirty thousand war veterans paraded in Warsaw last night carrying signs reading "Archbishop of Krakow should be sent to a concentration camp" and "Down with the Archbishop!"

Cross Free on Ball

Johnstown, N. Y., June 26 (AP).—Egbert T. Cross, who resigned yesterday as Fulton county clerk, was at liberty in $15,000 bail today awaiting grand jury action on a charge of failing to turn over to the county treasurer funds collected by his office. Assistant District Attorney Willard C. Best declared that an investigation by the state comptroller's office, which caused Cross' arrest, is still underway. Pending completion of the investigation, he said, he could make no comment on the amount of the funds involved. Cross was arrested last night, the prosecutor said, on a warrant signed by Police Chief William H. Keaveney, supported by affidavits filed by auditor John C. McNeely of the state comptroller's office.

Two-Thirds of British Empire Found in India

India accounts for more than two-thirds of the population of the British Empire. It has nearly three times as many people as the United States, although its area is only a little more than half as large. But the more than 351,399,000 Indians crowded into the triangular peninsula that juts out from the bottom of Asia are far from unified, culturally, religiously, or politically. India is a crazy-quilt of presidencies, native states, provinces, protectorates, tribal areas and even a few foreign-owned patches. Some parts have been governed by modern princes ruling with Arabian Nights splendor, holding power of life and death over their minions, maintaining their own armies, and subject indirectly to the British king-emperor. India is usually thought of as entirely British, but France and Portugal keep tiny toe-holds on the edges of the huge British domain.

Upper Jaw Not Blamed

The common belief among all natives where crocodiles and alligators are found is that these animals move their upper jaws rather than the lower when they open their mouths. This is a ridiculous idea to anyone who has examined the skeleton of one of these animals. The upper jaw is not hinged, says a writer in Pearson's London Weekly, but is built solidly into one piece with the upper part of the head, just as in other animals, and the lower jaw is hinged just as in man. The reason people believed these animals opened their upper jaws was that when lying on the ground the lower jaw could not be moved any lower, so the mouth was opened by raising the whole head and leaving the lower jaw still on the ground.

Cigar-Makers in C. I. O.
New York, June 26 (AP).—John L. Lewis and his committee for Industrial Organization have enrolled the oldest New York local in the American Federation of Labor, Local 144 of the Cigar-Makers International Union, of which Samuel Gompers, "father" of the A. F. of L., was a president. Secretary Armando Ramirez blamed failure of the A. F. of L. to give financial assistance in a recent strike as the reason for the move.

Would Save Convicts

Topeka, Kas., June 26 (AP).—Attorneys for two paroled New York convicts laid plans today for an effort to save the pair from the gallows for the slaying of a federal agent. The condemned men, Glen Applegate, 39, and Robert J. Suhay, 24, were found guilty by a federal court jury yesterday of the first degree murder of W. W. Baker, shot when he attempted to arrest them in the Topeka post office April 16 on charges of robbing a Katonah, N. Y., bank. Their counsel said they would file a motion for a new trial after Judge Richard J. Hopkins announced he would pronounce sentence Tuesday.

Business Certificate

James H. Schoonmaker of 33 Derrenbacher street and Donald H. Schoonmaker of O'Neill street, Kingston, have certified to the Ulster county clerk that they are doing a business in Kingston under the style and name of J. H. Schoonmaker & Son. The business is contracting and building.

Milk Increase in July

New York, June 26 (AP).—Forty-three thousand farmers supplying New York city with 2,500,000,000 pounds of milk annually will receive about one cent a quart more for their product during July. The increase will be passed on to the consumer, making grade "A" milk 15 cents a quart, and grade "B" 12.

The early bird gets the worm . . . if he knows where to look!
Watch a robin on the lawn some sunshiny morning. A few hops, then a pause. A few more hops, and he listens again. Then, triumphant, he pulls out a fat, wriggling worm.
A silly bird, you would say, if he merely pecked here and there, hoping to strike it lucky.

Rose and blue pleated crepe makes a bright and effective sash for this summer frock of crisp white rayon. It is cut with a very waistline seam and finished with tasseled neck bows recalling the colors of the sash. The studded, ribbon neck-bow on the white, straw, whippool beret and the leather rosettes which rim the bag are also rose and blue.

Vacation Clothes Should Be Chosen With Care

FOR BASEBALL FANS
This shirt-and-short combination is comfortable on the diamond. It is made of plain and striped best ticking.

FOR CANOE PADDLERS
Royal blue sateen, stitched in white, makes attractive culottes for canoe trips. Bandana handkerchiefs are used for scarf and belt, adding the necessary touch of gay color.

FOR TENNIS PLAYERS
White cotton pique, that old favorite for tennis costumes, is used in this simple, well-tailored garment. The belt provides the contrast. This one is an arrangement of red, white and blue.

FOR WOODLAND HIKERS
Many-pocketed jungle shirt in rust-colored desert cloth is combined with slacks of brown gabardine.

Forget The Ironing Board When Picking Holiday Outfits

By JOAN DURHAM
AP Feature Service Writer

Before you pick your vacation wardrobe, stop, relax and meditate.

There are two items thousands of women wish they could take along on their vacations—an ironing board and a sewing machine. But who ever heard of such a thing?

The whole trouble lies in not selecting the wardrobe properly.

Sturdy Play Clothes

Pick sturdy, muss-resistant play clothes and choose each garment with an eye to the play activity for which it will be worn.

Wool slacks, for instance, are best for hiking where the weather is cool. The perennial twin sweaters, too, are musts where chilly weather is the rule and not the exception. (Wear the short-sleeved sweater when it's warm and keep the cardigan tied like a scarf around the neck to get it out of the way.)

Hot beaches and lake shores, however, call for cooler apparel. Cotton prints, pique and shirting fabrics are old standbys there. Sailcloth, cotton sheeting, gabardine and faded blue denim are more recent favorites.

Year's Best Ensembles

The five most important play costumes this year are: Slacks-and-shirt ensembles, short-and-short outfits, one-piece play suits topped by wrap-around skirts (new), culottes and overalls.

The one-piece suit is the latest play clothes news. It buttons down the front to the waist-line and is topped by a wrap-around skirt which also has buttons down the middle, in front.

Culottes, so popular last year, have more or less taken a back seat for the shirt-and-short and slacks-and-shirt ensembles.

The latest slacks are cut like men's trousers. They are creased in front and back, have cuffs and often have pockets in back or at the sides.

This year's shorts are designed to resemble skirts as nearly as possible, although they are considerably shorter than skirt-length. One of the newest is pleated on each leg in front, is plain in back, and has a pocket on the right hip (for handkerchief or compact).

New Furnishings Adapt Gardens To Personalities

FOR COMFORT OUTDOORS
The only trouble with a comfortable lawn seat is that everyone in the family will want to use it at once.

By MARY DAVIS GILLIES
Prepared By McCall's Magazine For The Freeman

Even if the ceiling is the sky and the walls are trees and shrubbery, it's a room if you live there. That's the spirit of the interior decorators when they tackle your terrace and garden.

New outdoor furniture is styled to give outdoor "rooms" personality. You may like good old rustic benches of recent black chromium. Or you may choose from a number of new things.

While iron sets not only are novel but also are ornamental. You can get lacy Victorian designs, modern curves or amusing "concepts" like the set with musical instruments worked into the chair backs. Pastel shades can be had to go with the garden colors.

Rattan, always sturdy and comfortable, has reached new decorative heights with natural finishes, and the latest subtle color effects, like upholstery in sand color, soft browns and yellows. The new "frosted" finish—unvarnished and weathered—looks primitive, but is amazingly "right" for furniture as sophisticated as Chippendale.

Modern design is fine for "built-up" ensembles. Two iron chairs have a glass table built between

FASHION FANCIES

New York (AP)—Floral prints have taken to horizontal and vertical patterns. Instead of a scattering of roses all over a navy background, roses now march down the length of the gown in orderly stripes.

New York (AP)—Transparent velvet is fast becoming a sturdy fabric. Manufacturers are perfecting a kind for fall which not only is crush-resistant, but also water-resistant. The new velvet does not attract dust and lint.

Paris (AP)—Half-and-half coats in the Heim collection are one color in front and another in back. One of the smartest is divided between black and light blue. The blue is in front. The front half of the sleeves also is blue. Tweed is

Helps For Housewives

In making coffee, tea or chocolate to be served iced, double the strength—to allow for the ice used in cooling the beverage.

To improve the flavors of vegetable, fish or meat salads sprinkle a little salt and paprika over the top of each portion just before serving.

In setting table, jelly spoons and pickle forks should be placed at the left of each dish. After the first guest serves himself the utensil should be left in the dish. It is not placed in the dish at first, however.

A heavy streak at the bottom of a cake usually is due to incomplete blending of ingredients. This is especially true when egg yolks are used in the batter. To avoid the streak give the batter an extra beating.

A summer confection which combines the ice cream and cake idea may be made by placing a frozen layer of ice cream or sherbet between two layers of white, sponge or angel food cake. The combination may then be covered with whipped cream.

A change in the breakfast menu will "pep up" jaded appetites. Serve different fruits or fruit juices each day in the week. Try a variety of cereals and hot breads. Take a little extra time to make blueberry muffins or a favorite coffee bread.

The small rough green squash called "acorn" or "Des Moines" may be prepared in many tempting ways. Cut the squash in half. Discard the pulp. Bake the squash and serve it with butter, salt and pepper. It may be stuffed with little sausages or uncooked ham cakes.

When laundering sweaters or knitted suits be careful not to stretch them while wet or they will be too large when dried. Before washing, lay the garment on some light-colored paper and trace about it with a pencil. When it has been rinsed lay the garment into the tracing and lay paper and garment on a Turkish towel to dry. Drying may require two days, but the fitting will be correct.

Be careful not to drink or eat too much cold or chilled food in summer. The stomach naturally becomes chilled if the food is very cold. Digestion is then retarded. Meats, broiled or made into loaves, vegetables served with plain or butter sauces, fruits, or vegetable salads with French dressing and simple desserts are appetizing and nutritious.

used in both colors. A narrow band of black Persian lamb forms the boundary line down the sleeves and sides.

Conveniences Aid Care of Clothes

Ithaca, June 25.—The ideal closet has both a window and an artificial light. A coat of light colored, washable paint on both shelves and walls makes the closet lighter and easier to clean, according to Mildred Carney of the Cornell home economics extension service.

A slanting shelf with a strip to hold heels, keeps shoes within handy reach and away from dust and rough treatment on the floor. When there is no room for shoe shelves along the closet wall, racks or bags on the door will hold them.

If the rod for hangers is placed parallel to the doorway, garments are easy to see and reach. A rod set at a height of at least 63 inches will prevent long dresses from touching the floor. Whenever possible, place the rod so that the clothes will hang in a current of air. Hangers that keep clothes in best shape fit the shoulders in both side and shape. If hangers are covered with fabric or have rubber tips, clothes will not slip off. Rubber bands wound around each end of wooden hangers are a good substitute for rubber tips.

To protect party clothes and other rarely used garments from soil, dress bags of transparent fabric are useful, as they allow the garments to be seen easily. These bags are easy to make at home.

New York (AP)—Opera pumps have gained popularity with the racing season. They give added comfort in walking on sandy soil, and so have preference over open-toed sandals. Plain, unadorned pumps in navy, black and London tan are the favorites.

Simple stitches—an easy pattern—a striking motif make a bedspread that is unusual in its rich beauty. Its durability makes it something to hand on from generation to generation. Inexpensive to crochet in natural or colored string. Use it to dress up your own bedroom or add a luxurious note to your guest room. You can make a lovely matching scarf, using finer cotton. In pattern 5869 you will find complete instructions for making the medallion shown, an illustration of it and of all the stitches used; material requirements; a photograph of the medallion.

For summer luncheons a crisp, cold salad served in a nest of lettuce or other green may be accompanied by biscuits, wafers or sandwiches and a fruit cup, sherbet or ice cream.

After the sun has started to sink and the air gets cooler, slightly heavier dishes may be served. Cold sliced ham or tongue, baked veal or ham loaf, a large bowl of fish, vegetable, potato or fruit salad—even fried chicken—will be welcome.

Gelatin molds, too, are general favorites. Care must be taken, however, not to allow them to melt in the sun.

Tomatoes stuffed with fish, diced cucumbers, chopped ham or chopped cabbage are tasty. A large bowl of well-seasoned cabbage salad may be put at the side.

The hostess who hasn't time to make hot biscuits or rolls ( . . . ) They taste exceptionally good when they're the only hot things on the menu. . . ) may serve trays of nuts, orange, date or banana-nut breads. At the same time she may pass a tray of colorful relishes—radishes, hay onions,

Home Institute ETIQUETTE IN PUBLIC

Brushing up on etiquette changed everything for this young couple. Now when they dine out or go to parties, no awkward hesitation over what to do and say spoils their fun.

In restaurants, the young woman goes before her escort when there's a head waiter to guide them to a table and pull out her chair for her. If there's no head waiter, she follows her escort to the table he selects. He pulls out her chair for her before he seats himself.

Fork, Spoon or Fingers?

Whether to use fork, spoon or fingers presents no problem for these poised young people.

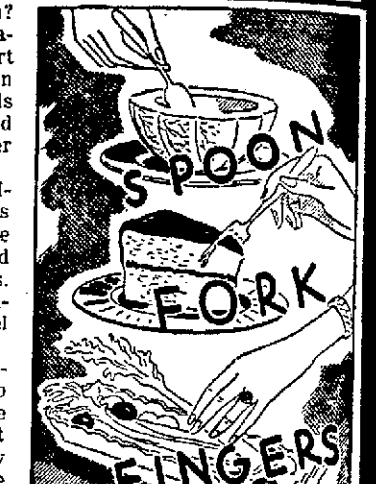

Fruit cup? Cantaloupe? The spoon's the things.

Cake with soft icing? French pastry? Eat them deftly with a fork.

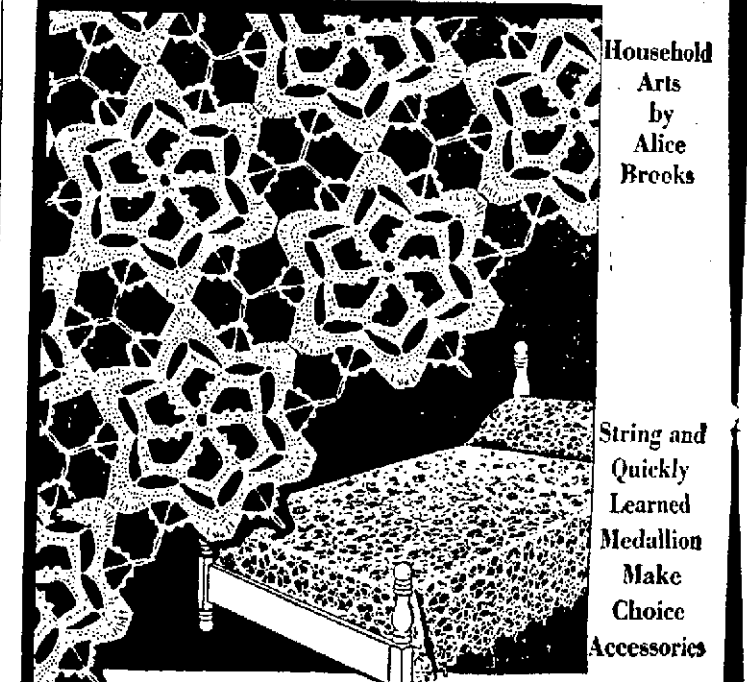

Olives, celery and radishes? Always with the fingers. Asparagus when the stalks are short and firm and dry may be taken in the fingers. So may crisp curls of bacon. The fingers are used to remove cherry pits or other seeds from the mouth.

Our 40-page booklet ETIQUETTE FOR EVERY DAY, has all the answers to your etiquette problems. Whether to rise and shake hands at introductions. How to answer invitations. Etiquette of the theater. Good travel manners.

Send 15c for our booklet, ETIQUETTE FOR EVERY DAY, to Kingston Daily Freeman, Home Institute, 109 West 19th street New York, N. Y. Write plainly your NAME, ADDRESS, and the NAME of booklet.

celery, spiced apricots, jellies and Pineapple sherbet is one of the most refreshing, while fruit ice cream is a perfect partner for any food or sponge cake.

THE CROWNING TOUCH
A pitcher of lemonade and a tray of cakes invite the afternoon visitor to spend a leisurely hour or two. Add a generous bowl of salad, some sandwiches, and ice cream for an early evening supper.

Tyrolean Costume

GARMENT No. 2456

Straight from the Austrian mountains comes this red, white and green Tyrolean costume—but it is well suited for American resort and country wear. The stitch is, as you see, the cable—a sport classic by this time, and the pockets are trimmed with a bit of embroidery—a modified heart—an ever recurring motif in peasant fashions. There are few styles better suited to a slightly rounded figure than the peasant fashions with square neck, and somewhat fitting bodices. Directions for this costume may be held by sending a self-addressed stamped envelope to Editor Woman's Page, Kingston Daily Freeman, Kingston, N. Y. Ask for No. 2456 and send in your request by July 15, 1937.

Notice—So many requests have been received for directions for crocheted rug that the supply has been exhausted. A new lot has been ordered and will be mailed out upon receipt.

Albany Lightweight In Sensational Bout With the A. A. U. Champ

Survives Two Knockdowns to Flatten International Star with Hard Right to Jaw; Roman Decisions Charley Forezzi.

One of the most sensational fights ever seen in Kingston was the main attraction at the municipal auditorium, Friday night, when Frankie Mirable knocked out the international lightweight champion, Willie Smith in 27 seconds of the fourth round.

A cyclonic fight was what the Adirondack A. A. U. kingpin used to belt out Smith, who had scored two knockdowns before stopping that whistling fist of Frankie's right on the button.

It was fully 10 minutes before the dusky little Golden Gloves star from New York recovered consciousness from the sock which even Mirable didn't know he had. His first thoughts were of a return match.

"That punch was a fluke, but I stopped it, and that's that," said the humiliated champ of all the amateur lightweights in the world. "But, I'd like a chance to redeem myself before the fans who heard that nice build-up Announcer Sam Riber gave me before the Arrangements were started to bring the two together on Friday night, July 9, for the mayor's industrial committee card at the auditorium.

Smith had been the favorite in last night's match, and was picked to belt out Mirabile, the Albany flite star Willie's performance at the Yankee Stadium earlier this month was the basis on which he was picked. Competing against the Italian team, he was the only American who scored a knockout.

That night in the Stadium, members of the mayor's industrial committee watched Smith put his man away, and immediately started negotiations for him to box Mirabile, the upper New York fighter who went as far as the finals in the national A. A. U. tourney at Boston.

Getting Smith for Kingston was no easy matter. He is in demand all over the country, but finally he agreed to appear at the auditorium, mainly to save the day for the mayor's group who lost the heavyweight brawl between Sergeant Perry of West Point and Johnnie Bilecki, Scotch Polish Pounder, because the latter was ill.

Perry-Bilecki Coming

Although it went on as a substitution five rounder, the lightweight brawl was every bit as sensational as the beef trust match would have been, even Cautious throughout the first round, the two champions opened up in the second for a hammer and tongs affair. Smith sunk a short left hook to Mirable's midsection to drop him for a count of nine. He repeated in the third, and things looked bad for the capital city 120 pounder.

Then came that thrilling fourth stanza in which the Adirondack champ shot that whistling right to Smith's jaw laying him out

"I never hit a fighter so hard in my life", said Mirabile in the dressing room. "Where the power came from, I don't know, but it gave me a new idea on punching". Mirabile never had a reputation as a puncher, but from now on probably will go out to make a name for himself.

The next meeting between the two at the auditorium probably will call for an entirely new seating arrangement to increase the capacity by several hundred.

The weights last night were Smith, 122; Mirabe, 134.

Romano Victorious

Danny Romano, 129 pound Beacon Bomber, got the decision over Charley Porcelli, Albany featherweight, who squandered his between the rape- for competition last night for the first in two months. Forezzi looked good in the first two rounds but the rugged little Beacontie thrilled the customers by outslugging Charley in the third. Romano held his own in the fourth, as Forezzi's payoff began to show, and had the better of the milling in the Buddy Emerson, 134, St. Remy, in one of the special five rounders stopped Johnny Hampton, 131, of Albany, hanging up the second victory of his comeback after two years out of the ring. Emerson dropped Hampton twice for nine and continued his barrage in the second. He dropped Hampton in the rising in the third round.

West Point, in 2:26 of the fourth

New York, June 26 (AP)—Steel and rail shares were at the fore of a slow downward movement in the stock market today, with leaders of fractions to more than a point.

All divisions shared in the downturn. Motors, oils, metals and specialties suffered from the general lack of interest. Some of the carriers were at new lows for the year.

Transfers approximated 250,000 shares. Commodities were uneven and bonds, with the exception of some South American issues, were irregularly lower.

Bottom marks for the year were hit by Northern Pacific, New York Central and Pennsylvania railroad.

Other conspicuous losers were U. S. Steel, Bethlehem, Youngstown Sheet and Tube, Chrysler, Allis-Chalmers, Boeing, Douglas Aircraft, American Telephone, Western Union, Consolidated Edison, Anaconda Copper, Kennecott, Cerro de Pasco, American Smelting, Westinghouse, General Electric, Du Pont, Allied Chemical, Standard Oil of New Jersey, Santa Fe, Southern Railway, Southern Pacific, Great Northern Preferred and Woolworth.
